1. Short description of the business (guideline 50 words)

Juiced Media are a small team of design and web professionals with big ambition. Formed in early 2007, Juiced Media are the regions premier provider of websites, apps and online marketing strategies. Located in the seaside town of Lowestoft in Suffolk, Juiced Media has a track record of working with businesses of all sizes from newly formed small businesses to large multinationals, charities and local government, and delivering projects that greatly contribute to their success.

2. Green credentials (any awards etc.)

None unfortunatley, but we would like some ;)

3. Key lessons – what would you do differently? What has worked well?

Having in-depth metrics relating to our energy usage has proven invaluable as has the advice provided which we are still implementing and expanding on.

4. Where did I get my advice? Any sources of support you found particularly helpful.
